

FIGHT HUNGER WITH FOOD 20-26 NOVEMBER

WHY NOW?

King's Lynn Foodbank is on track for its busiest year ever. We fed over 3,600 people in 2016 and may well break the 4,000 mark in 2017. We provide emergency food parcels for people in crisis and work with support agencies to ensure they can find a way out of their current situation. We need your help to fight food poverty in King's Lynn.

Funds raised will help us carry out our everyday work and expand our service so we can provide help that goes beyond just providing food.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

It's really, really simple!

STEP ONE: Invite people for a meal! Over the next few weeks, we'll be filling the website with lots of ideas to make the event a success, as well as templates to download for menus, invitations, place-name cards, after-dinner games and so on.

STEP TWO: People come along, eat together and make a donation for the food they've eaten!

The food could be as simple as a jacket potato and fillings, or could be a full-on dinner party.

Who can host? Anyone! You could be an individual with a love of cooking, a school or business who'd like an opportunity to get people together and eat, or a restaurant/café who'd be prepared to donate their proceeds to the Foodbank for a night.

And it doesn't have to be a meal – get people together over breakfast, lunch, or any time of the day!

HOW DO I GET INVOLVED?

We're really excited about the Foodbank Big Supper week and we'd love you to get involved. If you're interested in hosting a meal or would like to talk further, contact andy@kingslynn.foodbank.org.uk or sign up via our website.
